

Chapter 19

Section 1

Guided Reading Questions

1. Why didn't the allied powers treat France more harshly after Napoleon's defeat?
2. Who were the four victorious allies in 1814?
3. What four representatives dominated the Congress of Vienna, where were they from??
4. What were the two major aims of Metternich at the Congress?
5. What was Castlereagh's major aim?
6. What was the major aim of Alexander I?
7. What was Talleyrand's major aim?
8. What were the two major aims of the Congress of Vienna in general?
9. How did the Congress of Vienna deal with the Confederation of the Rhine?
10. Why did Austria oppose the territorial ambitions of Prussia?
11. How did Britain emerge from the Congress of Vienna?
12. How did Alexander I hope to settle future international disputes?
13. What was the aim of the Quadruple Alliance?
14. Establishment of the European Congress System set what precedent?

Vocab

liberalism	Castlereagh	German Confederation
nationalism	Alexander I	Quadruple Alliance
Congress of Vienna	Talleyrand	Concert of Europe
Metternich	political equilibrium

Section 2

Guided Reading Questions

1. What two forces threatened to upset the European peace after 1815?
2. What was the chief aim of European liberals at this time?
3. What was the chief aim of European nationalists at this time?
4. Which European dynasty stood to lose the most if nationalistic movements succeeded?
5. Where was reaction and anti-liberalism particularly strong at this time?
6. How did Metternich decide to deal with democratic revolutions that broke out after 1815?
7. What conditions during the 1820's promoted liberalism and reform in Britain?
8. Why did the French government become reactionary in 1824?
9. What were the two major social classes in the Hapsburg Empire at this time?
10. Which nation was the most influential member of the German Confederation?

Vocab

self-determination	Tories
constitution	Hapsburg